

MEDIUM VOLTAGE CABLE ACCESSORIES TRAINING

MEDIUM VOLTAGE CABLE ACCESSORIES TRAINING

TE Connectivity's Medium Voltage Cable Accessories:

- 1 day training course on 11kV MXSU for installers

You will gain further theoretical and practical knowledge of TE accessories combined with hands-on training. Product installations will be performed by you under the guidance of our accredited Training Manager during this comprehensive one-day course.

LOCATION

The Training Centre
Jointing Technologies
Bellsize Close
Norton Canes, WS11 9TQ

DATE

TBC

HOST

Jointing Technologies/TE Connectivity

TRAINING CONTACTS

Jointing Tech Training Services
Chris Brown: Training Manager

Email: chris.brown@jointingtech.co.uk

Attendees:

Name 1
Name 2
Name 3
Name 4

Company Name:

COMPANY ...

Attendee experience & objective

The training course is designed for experienced Jointers/Installers to become familiar with and demonstrate the correct installation of the cable accessory products covered.

What the course is not

The training course is not suitable for trainees that need to improve their cable preparation skills.

AGENDA –11kV MXSU

Day One, Date TBC

Jointing Tech Training Center

|          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30 am  | Classroom open                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 9:00 am  | Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Intro to Jointing Tech</li> <li>• Health &amp; Safety Induction</li> </ul>                                                                                       |
| 9:30 am  | Theory Presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Function of the product</li> <li>• Cable Accessories</li> <li>• Cable – Polymeric</li> <li>• Failure modes</li> <li>• Tricks of the Trade</li> </ul> |
| 10:30 am | Practical Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tooling</li> <li>• Cable Handling</li> <li>• Cable Preparation</li> <li>• Kit Content &amp; Instructions</li> </ul>                                    |
| 1:00 pm  | Lunch                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 2:00pm   | Practical Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Installation</li> <li>• Step by Step Review</li> </ul>                                                                                                 |
| 3:00pm   | Evaluation of Installation                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 4:00 pm  | Q&A Session                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 4:30 pm  | Wrap up                                                                                                                                                                                                           |